278-4 Definition

Faculty in the Health Sciences Clinical Professor series teach the application of basic sciences and, the mastery of clinical procedures in all areas concerned with the, and other health science topics to students, postdoctoral scholars, fellows, interns, residents, and other clinicians in all academic disciplines concerned with patient care-of-patients, including dentistry, medicine, nursing, optometry, pharmacy, physician assistant studies, psychology, veterinary medicine, the allied health professions, and other patient care professions. Health Sciences Clinical Professor series faculty engage in scholarly or creative activities which derive from and support their primary responsibilities in clinical teaching and professional and service activities.

The Health Sciences Clinical Professor series is separated distinct from the Volunteer Clinical Professor series, which is governed by APM - 279. University-paid staff physicians and staff clinicians and other clinicians and physicians practicing at non-UC-affiliated sites with teaching responsibilities may be appointed to titles in the Volunteer Clinical Professor series under APM - 279. University-paid staff physicians and staff clinicians and other clinicians and physicians practicing at UC-affiliated facilities without teaching responsibilities may be appointed to the Clinical Associate title under APM - 350, Clinical Associate.

278-8  Types of Appointment

b. Faculty in the Health Sciences Clinical Professor series may serve the University on a full-time, or part-time, basis and may be appointed with or without salary.
e.—Concurrent without-salary appointments

A concurrent without-salary appointment in the Health Sciences Clinical Professor series without salary at the University may be made for an appointee who is employed by the University as a staff physician or clinician, or for an individual who 1) holds a without salary or salaried clinical appointment paid by an institution with which the University has a formal affiliation agreement. The Chancellor, with the advice of the clinical departments, may establish separate review procedures and, within the limits of APM – 210-6, separate criteria for these appointees. For example, the Chancellor may decide that the campus will conduct only promotion reviews for this group—(a UC-affiliated facility), and 2) meets the criteria for appointment in this series as described in section 278-10.

When an individual’s salaried appointment ends, the without-salary appointment in the Health Sciences Clinical Professor series also will end automatically. Without-salary appointments in this series are to be distinguished from appointments in the volunteer Clinical Professor series (APM – 279), which are for practitioners from the community and at other non-affiliated sites.

d.—Health Sciences Clinical Professor titles are supported primarily by non-State funds, as defined in APM – 190, Appendix F (footnote 1), although under certain conditions, State funds may be used (see APM – 278-16-a).

Any compensation above the Fiscal Year Salary Scale 0 shall be funded using Health Sciences Compensation Plan funds and/or other non-State funds in compliance with any relevant fund source restrictions as outlined in APM—670, Section IV-A, B, and C.
The Chancellor may develop guidelines on the locally appropriate use of State and non-State funds to support appointments in this series, within the restrictions on fund sources stated in the Health Sciences Compensation Plan and the restrictions given below in (2) and (3).

(2) In a school or equivalent unit where all appointees in this series have appointments of one year or less, funding equivalent to the Fiscal Year Salary Scale rate for the appointee’s rank and step may come from State funds or from other sources. The Chancellor shall notify these faculty that the use of State funds for these appointments does not indicate any commitment of tenure or security of employment. For such appointments, which may be renewed, there is no time limit on the use of State funding.

(3) Limits on State funding for Schools not covered by (2) above.

In a school or equivalent unit where appointees in this series do not all have appointments of one year or less, the following restrictions apply for any individual who has an appointment at 50 percent time or more. At least 50 percent of funding equivalent to the Fiscal Year Salary Scale rate—for the rank and step of an appointee shall come from sources other than—

State funds. However, in exceptional circumstances, the Chancellor is authorized to use State funds for 50 percent or more of an individual’s

Fiscal Year Salary Scale rate for the specific rank and step for no more—than 8 (eight) years. This limit on State funding applies to service for an individual over the course of his or her University career in all ranks in—this series combined. Such an exception, in combination with service—in any other State-funded appointment in those titles specified in—

APM - 133-0-b and -c, shall not exceed eight years.——

Appointments in the Health Sciences Clinical Professor series at less than—50 percent time may be supported by State funds with no limit on the—duration of the use of State funding.

b. Change of series of appointees to other titles

An appointee in the Health Sciences Clinical Professor series may be appointed—change to another academic or professorial series following academic review. A—competitive to the Professor series, the Professor in Residence series, or the—Professor of Clinical (e.g., Medicine) series only after a competitive affirmative—action search and review by the appropriate Senate committee. In exceptional—circumstances, the search may or may not be required. The Chancellor may grant an exception to a waiver of the search requirement in exceptional circumstances.

c. Appointees at affiliated institutions

The Chancellor may approve In the transfer case of an appointee in the Health Sciences Clinical Professor series to the Adjunct Professor series with the individual’s consent, the recommendation of the department, and a regular academic review. who holds an appointment at an affiliated institution, the continuation of the academic appointment is contingent upon the continuation of the faculty member’s appointment at the affiliated institution. In the case of an appointee in the Health Sciences Clinical Professor series who is partially paid by the affiliate and UC, the UC appointment may continue if the appointment at the affiliate ends.

278-17 Terms of Service

An appointment in the Health Sciences Clinical Professor series shall have a specified ending date. Written notice of the appointment or reappointment shall follow the provisions of APM – 137-17.
