

Judy Ackerhalt

Judy Ackerhalt became Deputy to the Associate Vice President, and Executive Director of Systemwide Human Resources and Benefits Strategic Planning in April of 2002. She is responsible for leadership of the strategic direction of UC's Human Resources and Benefits, as well as the operations of HR Systems and Administration, Constituent Relations, Legislative Analysis, and oversight of UCOP's Human Resources services.

Ms. Ackerhalt has 27 years of experience in the field of human resources, including 16 years at the Office of the President, where she formerly managed the design, communication, and administration of the University's retirement plans, and the administration of UC's health and welfare programs. Prior to that she worked for 11 years at the Los Alamos National Laboratory where she ultimately headed the Benefits Office. And for ten months in 2003-04, she served as Interim Human Resources Director at the Los Alamos National Laboratory.

Ms. Ackerhalt holds a Bachelors of Arts degree from William Smith College. She is a member of several HR and higher education professional organizations and is a past president of the California Association of Public Retirement Systems.

November 2004