

Teaching and Learning Center for Health Sciences

- Constructs a Medical Education Building adjacent to the Center for the Health Sciences (CHS) complex.
- Enables CHS occupants to relocate to seismically safe space; consolidates educational programs currently scattered throughout the CHS complex; and provides the School of Medicine with modern instructional space that cannot be provided in the existing building.
- Includes classrooms and seminar rooms, multi-purpose meeting space, lecture hall, teaching labs, clinical skills center, informal teaching areas, and administrative office and building support space
- Part of campus' Seismic Safety Program.
