THIS WEEK IN CONGRESS AND THE ADMINISTRATION

- This week, the Senate is in session. The House is expected to be in session next week.
- This week, negotiations between congressional leaders and the administration regarding a COVID-19 relief package continue.
- This week, congressional leaders and the administration are expected to work on a deal to fund the government after Dec. 11. Both Majority Leader McConnell and Speaker Pelosi have expressed that they favor an omnibus package/s, which would wrap the spending bills together.
- On Tuesday, the Senate is expected to vote on the nomination of Judge James Knepp to be a district judge for the northern district of Ohio.

ADVOCACY UPDATE

- Last week, UC FGR created an election results document, which tracks the Nov. 3 election as it relates to the presidential, U.S. Senate and U.S. House of Representatives races. As votes continue to be counted, the document will be updated in Box every Monday, Wednesday and Friday until the California House races have been called.
