Program Information

Purpose

- To help women advance in their UC Careers and retain women who have demonstrated potential for advancement

Sponsors and Management

- Sponsored by Systemwide Advisory Committee on the Status of Women (SACSW) and the UC Office of the President
- Systemwide Talent Management administers and coordinates the program and nomination process

Target Audience

- Mid-career faculty, academic personnel, and staff from campuses, health centers, Division of Agriculture and Natural Resources, Lawrence Berkeley National Laboratory, and Office of the President
- Someone who has demonstrated potential for advancement

2020 Program Overview

- Four regional cohorts (2 in the North and 2 in the South) Each cohort includes 30 participants, allowing 120 women to participate
- One nomination request for participants and alternates will be made for all four 2020 programs
- Upon nomination confirmation, participants will be asked to select which cohort they would like to attend
- Each session will be led by a Coro facilitator and a UC facilitator who has graduated from a prior UC WI program

Participation Expectations

- Participants commit to attend all program sessions in their entirety
- Pre-Work and Pre-Program Survey must be completed before the first day of the program
- Up to 2 hours of additional work will be assigned and completed between the program sessions

Participant Outcomes

- Build strategic relationships
- Actively communicate their value to the organization
- Advocate for their own needs in the workplace
- Coach others to demonstrate their value to the organization
- Increase awareness of diverse UC career paths

Program Costs

- The $1,925/participant program fee covers all program materials and facilitation fees

Travel Costs

- The participant's location is responsible for covering all travel related costs
- Participants manage their own travel arrangements and submit travel reimbursements to their location/department using the established location Travel & Entertainment procedures
