

UC Women's Initiative

for Professional Development

2021-2022 UC Women's Initiative for Professional Development (UC WI) Program Information and Nomination Process

Purpose

UC WI is a unique, experiential professional development program committed to enabling the full participation, success, and advancement of woman-identified professionals at the University. The program is open to all who support this mission and who are interested in the development of woman-identified professionals.

Sponsors and Management

- UC WI is sponsored by the President's Office and the Systemwide Advisory Committee on the Status of Women \(SACSW\)
- Systemwide Talent Management administers the program and coordinates nominations with locations

Target Audience

- Mid-career faculty, academic personnel and staff from campuses, health centers, Division of Agriculture and Natural Resources, Lawrence Berkeley National Laboratory and Office of the President
- Someone who has demonstrated potential for advancement

Participant Outcomes

- Build strategic relationships
- Actively communicate their value to the organization
- Advocate for their own needs in the workplace
- Coach others to demonstrate their value to the organization
- Increase awareness of diverse UC career paths

Participant Criteria

- Is a current mid-career faculty, academic personnel and staff from campuses, health centers, Division of Agriculture and Natural Resources, Lawrence Berkeley National Laboratory and Office of the President
- Demonstrated potential for advancement
- Is a woman-identified professional or supports woman-identified professionals and seeks to learn concepts that improve their effectiveness at work and hear about the career journeys of established UC leaders
- Represents the diversity at each UC location
- Represents different functions and departments at each location
- Is able to commit to the program with full attendance and participation at all sessions
- Is able to complete intersession assignments which require up to two hours between seminars
- Has the written support of their supervisor or Chancellor Cabinet Member

Program Participation Expectations

- Participate fully - the UC Women's Initiative is experiential and relies heavily on full participant contribution
- Attend all program sessions in their entirety — locations will be charged for participants who do not complete the program
- Complete Pre-Work and Pre-Program Survey before the first day of their assigned cohort
- Complete up to 2 hours of additional work assigned between program sessions

UC WI Participant Costs

- The $1050 participant fee covers virtual program delivery and all program resources, tools and support.
- This is the same as the previous years' participant fee
- Upon return to the preferred, in-person delivery method, we expect the fee to increase to its original $1950 per participant or higher, based on the cost of in-person delivery
- Travel and other expenses for in-person deliveries of the program are the responsibility of the individual participant's location
- By nominating and selecting an individual, the location is agreeing to payment of the $1050 participant fee and participant travel expenses.

2021/2022 Program Overview

The UC WI schedule coincides with UC's academic/fiscal calendar. We will offer six cohorts with the nomination and selection process running March through May 2021. The program is planned to be offered completely virtually at this time, due to remote work requirements.

The 2021/2022 program includes:

- A single request for nominations to fill all cohorts
- Program fee of $1050 per participant
- Six regional cohorts (three North and three South), 30 participants per cohort, accommodating 180 total
- Four sessions per cohort, co-facilitated by Coro Northern California staff and UC WI graduates
- Virtual program delivery

2021/2022 Nomination Process

The nomination process opens March 31 and runs through April 30.
