

Anytime/Anywhere Access

UCOP Information Technology Services

How to Access Cloud Computing Using a Web Browser

Cloud computing can be accessed from a web browser, whether from a UCOP computer or a personal device. Most current web browsers with HTML5 capabilities (Internet Explorer, Firefox, Chrome) are compatible with cloud computing.

| | | |
|----|--|--|
| 1. | Open a web browser. | Type in the URL https://mycloud.ucop.edu |
| 2. | This is the login screen from the UCOP network . | Note: If you want to bookmark the URL, make sure the link is https://mycloud.ucop.edu . |
| | This is the login screen from outside the UCOP network . | |
| 3. | Enter your UCOP user name and password. | Click the Log On button |
| 4. | Select Apps or Desktops at the bottom of the page. | Apps – Choose Apps to go to the cloud computing app store Desktops – Choose Desktops to go to the cloud desktop |

| | | |
|-----------|---|---|
| 5. | To view the cloud computing app store, click the Apps button and then click the + button. |  |
| 6. | Click All Apps and choose the applications you want to add. |  |